

Who Can Install My Cast Stone

Question

I am really interested in purchasing some cast stone for my project. However, I haven't the slightest Idea of who I can hire that is capable of installing the stone?

Answer

Have no worries!

We have put together a list of hundreds of referred masons throughout the nation. To access this list simply log onto www.StoneLegends.com and select become a member. From the members home page you will see the referred masons list. You can look up your local area and get a list of masons in your area.
